After Care Program

Giving Back Society offers Relapse Prevention Housing. The Society has three houses that welcome men to extend their recovery program. The goal is to help men get back to work or education in a safe, stable environment. All Aftercare houses have live-in staff members. When we give back, we help our own recovery!

Who We Are

Giving Back Support Recovery Society is a non-profit organization that works with adult men (19+) who suffer from substance misuse and who desire & are committed to changing their lives to become productive members of society.

Giving Back Society provides these men with community living shelter, healthy food, zero-tolerance program of relapse prevention, group and one-on-one counselling plus access to NA, AA and 12-Step programs. There is experienced live-in staff on a 24/7 basis. We provide workshops in how to rebuild relationships and learn to integrate back into society. Access is provided to services and resources needed to succeed in the rebuilding of their lives.

Where Are We

Giving Back Society is in the inner city of Vancouver at 3608 Knight Street. This central location allows for easy access to the services and supports needed for promoting choice, growth and development. This location provides access to bus/skytrain transportation and is within walking distance to many program locations.

Why Choose Us

Giving Back Support Recovery Society started in the spring of 2012 and has help many men suffering from substance misuse to get back on the path of recovery, fulfilling their dreams and mending relationships with family.

Giving Back Society believes that by teaching honor and respect that all individuals have the capacity to learn and grow. Building on their strengths will allow them to become successful and satisfied in their living, working and social environments.
